

Ricardo Santos Lima

SENAI Cetind
Brazil

Title: Innovate to Educate

Synopsis:

Brazil has demonstrated notable social and economical developments, living in a time of significant international status; on the other hand, these developments have been stalled by deficiencies in strategic fields. Faced with this scenario, this lecture aims to discuss the issues on Innovation and education, emphasizing the correlation between these areas and the improvement of competitiveness of the country, from the comparative analysis of international and innovative educational practices.